

Voleo Members Set New Record for Recurring Contributions as Women Investment Participation and Team Size Continues to Grow

February 11, 2020

VANCOUVER, CANADA, Voleo Trading Systems Inc. (TRAD: TSX-V, VLEOF: OTC-QB) (“Voleo”, the “Company”), announces that its user community has set new record for account contributions while seeing club diversity and size grow.

In January, a record 65% of Voleo users contributed to their investment accounts leveraging Voleo’s simple recurring contribution feature. Voleo’s assets per funded user continues to grow with a remarkable 175% increase over the past year.

“We see our assets under management grow both from the addition of new clubs and incremental deposits from our current users.” says Glen Wilson, Interim CEO. “This demonstrated confidence in our unique social investing platform reinforces our market position and fuels our growth strategy.”

At the same time, Voleo continues to attract investors with diverse experience and backgrounds. Users range in age from 18 to 85 and 46% are women.

Glen continued, “With women representing half the population they are traditionally underrepresented in the investment space. We’re very proud that 46% of Voleo’s users are women, much higher than the average in other investment alternatives. Voleo’s collaborative trading platform with club-based democratic decision-making is perfect for women to invest in stocks and take steps to close the gender wealth gap.”

Voleo’s average investment club size has grown to 10 persons, as members refer and recruit their friends and family to collaboratively invest.

“Voleo’s viral social elements enables our users to use the Wisdom of the Crowd,” says Executive Chairman Mark Morabito. “This unique model also disrupts the traditional financial institutions customer acquisition standards. By attracting club founders who then recruit their team, Voleo's customer acquisition efforts are reduced by as much of a factor of 10.
